1.3 Name.

The official name of this organization shall be The Perfins Club, Inc.

1.4 Purposes.

The Corporation, hereinafter referred to as The Perfins Club, Inc., The Perfins Club or simply the Club, is organized as a mutual benefit Corporation under the Missouri Nonprofit Corporation Act (the “Act”) exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. The purpose of The Perfins Club shall be to promote, foster, and expand the knowledge and benefits of the hobby of philately in all its aspects. In furtherance of this goal The Perfins Club will:

- A. Sponsor and promote philatelic activities such as publications, lectures, forums, and educational programs and activities in order to increase the knowledge of philatelic perfins and promote the benefits of perfins philately;
- B. Promote research about philatelic perfins and the dissemination of knowledge of philatelic perfins to collectors and the general public; and
- C. Sponsor Club managed activities to facilitate access to philatelic materials of interest to collectors of perfins.

These activities (1.4.A - .C) are limited by the requirement imposed in Article 4.4.

1.5 Principal Office.

The Principal Place of Business of the Club shall be as defined in Article 1.2.U.

- A. In order to maintain the Club’s non-profit mailing privilege (primarily for mailing the Club’s Journal) it may be necessary to relocate the non-profit incorporation and the Club’s principal Place of Business to the State in which the mailing is being done.
- B. The Executive Board is authorized to take the necessary action to maintain the Club’s non-profit mailing privilege
- C. In such case, the State for the Club’s primary Place of Business shall be determined to be the State in which the Club’s Journal is mailed; the actual address, at the discretion of the Board, shall be either the address of a member of the Board residing in the State of record or that of the publisher/mailer of the Journal.

1.6 Required Records.

- A. The Club shall keep as permanent records:
  - 1. The Club’s Articles of Incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;
  - 2. The Club’s Bylaws and all amendments to them;

  - 2. The Club’s financial statements, which shall be furnished upon request;
  - 3. A list of the names and business or home addresses of its current Directors;
  - 4. Recent annual reports delivered to the Missouri Secretary of State; and
  - 5. Appropriate summary financial statements of all income and expenses.

Article 2 – Membership

2.1 Qualifications of Members.

The membership of this Club shall be composed of individuals who desire to further their knowledge about perfins and perfins collecting, without regard to age, gender, ethnic origin, religion, or nationality.

A. Admission to Membership.

1. Application for membership in the Perfins Club shall be in writing and must be accompanied by the annual dues for the completion of the current Membership Year and the immediate subsequent full Membership Year, plus any admission fee(s) as established by the Executive Board; and
2. Applications will be processed by the Secretary as described in Article 5.3.B.

B. Classes of Membership. There shall be five classes of membership as follows: Active, Contributing, Family, Life, and Sustaining as defined in Articles 1.2.A, .F, .J, .O & .W.

2.2 Dues.

A. Members who do not pay annual dues or special assessments within three (3) months of the due date thereof shall be suspended and placed on the inactive list by the Secretary of the Club until payment is received.

B. Suspended Members shall not be entitled to any of the rights of membership, including the right to vote.

2.3 Membership Transfer Restricted.

No Member may transfer his or her Membership or any right arising therefrom.

2.4 Resignation/Reinstatement of Member.

Members may resign in writing at any time.

A. The resignation of a Member does not relieve the Member from any obligations that he or she may have to the Club as a result of obligations incurred or commitments made prior to resignation.

B. Any former Member dropped from membership solely for non-payment of dues or other fiscal obligation may be reinstated in the Club upon payment of the annual (or prorated) dues and all other indebtedness to the Perfins Club.

2.5 Expulsion.

Any person subject to question for failing to meet the conditions of “Good Standing” (Article 1.2.L) shall be liable for expulsion from the Perfins Club. Expulsion for unethical or improper conduct shall take place only after written charges are submitted and an opportunity to be heard has been arranged and accomplished. The procedure hereby adopted in such cases shall be as follows:

A. No charge shall be considered unless submitted in writing and signed by at least five (5) Members, but not all of said Members shall be required to have firsthand knowledge of the action of the accused nor must all submit evidence in support of such charges. The purpose of this procedure is to protect a Member against mistake or individual ill will by requiring deliberation and the concurrence of a sufficient number of Members to entitle such charges to be considered;

B. A Member submitting charges of unbecoming conduct will be expected to cooperate with the Executive Board by submitting such evidence as they may have and by giving information as to other sources of evidence;

C. Charges shall first be submitted to the Executive Board. The accused shall be notified that charges have been preferred against him or her. The name(s) of the accuser(s), the names of the members who have signed in support of the action, and the charge(s) leveled shall be made known to him or her at this time;

D. If after initial investigation any or all of the charges are found by the Executive Board to merit further review of the facts, the charged Member shall be notified that a hearing will be held to formally review the charges:

1. Notification shall occur at least two (2) weeks before the hearing thereon; and,

2. This hearing shall be held by the Executive Board;

E. If the accused Member desires to make a defense against the charges, he or she shall submit a statement of defense in writing, and shall have the right to speak in person thereon and to produce witnesses;

F. After hearing the statement and evidence on behalf of the charges, and the defense thereof, the Executive Board shall decide the matter;

G. Unless any such charges are sustained by a majority (>50%) of the Members of the Executive Board at the hearing, such charges shall be dismissed, and the Members of the Executive Board shall refrain from further divulging such charges or any evidence offered at the hearing;

- H. The action of the Executive Board shall be deemed final unless, in the case of an adverse finding, the Member gives written notice to the Executive Board of an appeal to the Perfins Club;
- I. In the case of an appeal, all of the respective statements, witnesses, and evidence in support thereof shall be heard in an open meeting of the Perfins Club at a time to be set by the Executive Board;
- J The Chair of the Executive Board (The Club's President) or, in the event of conflict of interest, an unencumbered Director shall insure the accused ample opportunity to present a defense; and,
- K. Unless any such charges are sustained by a majority (>50%) of the Members of the Perfins Club present at the appeal, such charges shall be dismissed.

Article 3 – Meetings of the Members

3.1 Annual Meeting.

An Annual Meeting of the Members shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the President with the concurrence of the Executive Board.

- A. The Annual Meeting shall be for the purpose of electing Directors, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.
- B. At the Annual Meeting, the President shall report on the activities and financial condition of the Club.

3.2 Meeting Governance.

- A. The Chair of the Executive Board shall preside at the Annual Meeting.
- B. All parliamentary questions shall be interpreted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order Revised.

3.3 Notice.

- A. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the Annual Meeting of the Members shall be delivered not less than ten (10) days before the date of the meeting.
- B. Such notice shall be made by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting.
- C. Such notice may alternatively be made in the Club's Journal, given that the publication and mailing of that Journal shall be greater than sixty (60) days prior to the date of the meeting.

3.4 Voting: Quorum.

- A. One third of the membership of the Executive Board, providing that one Officer is included, shall constitute a quorum of the Board for any Annual Meeting of the Members; and,
- B. Each Member attending the Annual Meeting who is in Good Standing shall be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote of Members.
- C. An affirmative vote cast by a majority (>50%) of the Members present at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum of the Executive Board is present shall be necessary for the adoption of any uncontested matter voted upon by the Members.
- D. For any matter brought forward at the Annual Meeting which is contested, discussion shall be held and if not resolved by discussion the party or parties involved may request a vote be taken of the full membership to decide the issue. If more than twenty five percent (>25%) of the attendees at the Annual Meeting vote to have the issue brought to a vote of the full Membership, this vote shall be accomplished as described immediately below. (Article 3.4.D.1- .3)
  - 1. The Secretary will mail ballots to all Members by September 1 following the Annual Meeting of members, to be returned not later than November 10 of that same year. In lieu of individual mailings an official ballot may be published in the September or September/October issue of the Club's Journal.
    - (a) A summary of the arguments presented in support of and in opposition to the matter under consideration shall accompany the ballot.
    - (b) Should the contested matter be an election of a Director, brief statements of qualifications of each candidate including the priorities set by the candidate for the contested term of office shall be substituted for the summary of arguments.
  - 2. A majority (>50%) of a vote of no fewer than twenty-five percent (>25%) of Members in Good Standing shall be required to affirm the vote as binding;
  - 3. Should a vote of a total of fewer than twenty-five percent (>25%) of Members occur the Executive Board shall have the authority to resolve the issue in question.

- (a) Such decision shall require a special meeting of the Executive Board and follow the protocols established for such a meeting in Article 6; and,
- (b) A majority (>50%) vote of at least two thirds of the members of the Executive Board shall be required to affirm any decision made for the issues referred to the Executive Board as described in this Article of the Bylaws.

3.5 Presence.

Members must be present in person at the Annual Meeting of the Membership to establish presence at such meeting.

3.6 Order of Business.

The order of business at the Annual Meeting of the Perfins Club shall be as follows:

- Call to order
- Introduction of visitors
- Minutes of previous meeting
- Treasurer's report
- Committee reports
- Old business
- New business
- Special activities

- F. Elections of the four Officers of the Club shall be staggered in a repeating three year sequence as follows: Year 1 - President; Year 2 - Treasurer; Year 3 - Vice President, and Secretary.
- G. Elections of the three Directors-at-Large shall be staggered in a repeating three-year cycle with a single Director-at-Large position (that of the then third-year incumbent) being elected each year.
- H. Any elected Director who was elected or appointed to the position and is completing a full elected term may succeed himself or herself once; excepting the Secretary and Treasurer who may serve for an unlimited number of successive terms.
  - 1. Should a Director in an elected position limited to two consecutive terms of service have been placed in the position by Presidential appointment due to vacancy, that Director, while incumbent in that position, may run for and be elected to an additional two complete consecutive terms in said office, after which he or she shall be ineligible to immediately succeed in that position.
  - 2. A second term Director may serve in any other position as Director immediately after fulfilling his or her second term in another office.
- I. Nominees for contested elective office shall be voted upon by the membership as articulated in Article 3.4.D
- J. Should there be no contest, the Secretary, or in his or her absence the person designated to function for the secretary in absentia, will cast the ballot for the membership at the Club's Annual Meeting.

4.2 Other Vacancy.

If the office of any Director becomes vacant for any reason, other than by removal of the Director in the manner described in Article 5.7, the President or Acting President with approval of the Executive Board, or, in the absence of a President or Acting President, the remaining Directors shall choose a successor who shall hold office for the unexpired term.

4.3 Compensation.

Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services. However, reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred deriving from activities conducted on behalf of Club shall be reimbursable by the Club. Also, other expenses as authorized by a majority (>50%) vote of the Directors exclusive of the encumbered Director(s), who shall recuse themselves from the discussion and vote, shall be permitted.

4.4 General Powers.

The business, property and affairs of the Club shall be controlled and managed by the Executive Board.

- A. The Executive Board shall pass no resolution nor take any action which could result in conflict-of-interest or the appearance of conflict-of-interest (Article 9).
- B. Any Member of the Executive Board sponsoring an agreement or resolution and who may profit directly or indirectly either fiscally or in an in-kind manner from that resolution or agreement shall recuse him- or herself from any Executive Board vote to enact that agreement or resolution.
- C. The Executive Board shall not have the authority to empower subsets of itself as Executive Committees which have or exercise the authority of the full Executive Board.

  2. Hallock Card Award Committee. Annually, the President shall issue a call to the membership for nominations of a deserving Member for recognition as recipient of the Hallock Card Award to recognize his or her outstanding service to the Club, and for the hobby of collecting perfins. The Hallock Card Award is the Perfins Club's most distinguished award.
    - (a) The President shall appoint a nominating committee, chaired by the most recent honoree, plus two (2) other Members in good standing, to receive and evaluate the nominations and recommend to the Executive Board a recipient. In the event that the most recent honoree cannot serve for any reason the immediate prior recipient (working backward in time) shall be named Chair by the President.
    - (b) The Committee shall report its recommendations to the President for affirmation by the Executive Board.
    - (c) If no nominations are received, or no Member is deemed worthy of the Award, the Committee will so report.
  3. Floyd Walker Award Committee. Annually, the President shall issue a call to the membership for nominations of a deserving Member for recognition as recipient of the Floyd Walker award for scholarly research or time spent on the article(s), and the presentation of new perfin information for the betterment of U S and worldwide perfin collecting.
    - (a) The President shall appoint a nominating committee, chaired by the most recent honoree, plus two(2) other Members in good standing, to receive and evaluate the nominations and recommend to the Executive Board a recipient. In the event that the most recent honoree cannot serve for any reason the immediate prior recipient (working backward in time) shall be named Chair by the President.
    - (b) The Committee shall report its recommendations to the President for affirmation by the Executive Board.
    - (c) If no nominations are received, or no Member is deemed worthy of the Award, the Committee will so report.

7.2 Committee Meetings.

At all meetings of Committees, a majority (>50%) of the Members of the committee shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Article 8 – Finances

8.1 Contracts, Etc.: How Executed.

Except as otherwise provided for or restricted in these Bylaws, the Executive Board may authorize any Director, Director's agent or agents to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Club. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances; and, unless so authorized, no Director, or agent shall have any power or authority to bind the Club by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it fiscally liable for any purpose or in any amount unless in the ordinary course of business.

8.2 Loans.

No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the Club and no negotiable paper shall be issued in its name, unless and except as authorized by the Executive Board in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws.

- A. To the extent so authorized, any Director or agent of the Club may effect loans and advances at any time for the Club from any financial institution, or from any firm, club or individual, and for such loans and advances may make, execute and deliver promissory notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of the Club.
- B. When authorized as aforesaid, the Executive Board may pledge, hypothecate or transfer any and all stocks, securities and other personal property at any time held by the Club as security for the payment of any and all loans, advances, indebtedness and liabilities of the Club, and to that end may endorse, assign and deliver the same.

8.3 General and Special Bank Accounts.

The Executive Board from time to time may authorize the opening and keeping of general and special bank accounts with such banks, trust companies or other depositories as they may select and may make such rules and regulations with respect thereto, not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws, as they may deem expedient.

8.4 Checks, Drafts, Etc.

All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes, acceptances or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of the Club, shall be signed by the Treasurer or the Interim Treasurer in such manner as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Executive Board in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws. Endorsements for deposit to the credit of the Club in any of its duly authorized depositories may be made without countersignature by the President, Vice President or Treasurer, or by any other Director to whom the Executive Board, by resolution, shall have delegated such power, or by hand-stamped impression in the name of the Directors.

Article 9 – Conflict of Interest

Any contract or transaction between the Club and one or more of its Directors or Members, or between the Club and any other Club, partnership, association, or organization in which one or more of its Directors or Members are Directors or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for that reason, or solely because his or her or their votes are counted for such purposes. Encumbered directors may participate in discussion of a proposal, but must recuse him- or herself from the vote on said proposal.

However, if the material facts as to his or her relationship or interest as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board or the Committee, the Board with such disclosure and in good faith and taking into account the fairness of the contract or transaction may authorize the contract or transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority (>50%) of the unencumbered Directors.

Article 10 – Indemnification

Each person who is or was an elected or appointed Director of the Club, including the heirs, executors, administrators, or estate of such person, shall be indemnified by the Club to the full extent permitted or authorized by the laws of the State of Missouri, as now in effect and as hereafter amended, against any liability, judgment, fine, amount paid in settlement, costs and expenses, including attorney fees, incurred as a result of any claim arising in connection with such person's conduct in his or her capacity, or in connection with his or her status, as a Director of the Club.

The indemnification provided by this bylaw provision shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which such person may be entitled under any other Bylaws or agreement, vote of disinterested Directors, or otherwise, and shall not limit in any way any right that the Club may have to make different or further indemnification with respect to the same or different person or classes of persons.

Article 11 – Miscellaneous

11.1 Amendments.

Any amendments to the Articles of Incorporation of the Club or these Bylaws must be approved.

- A. Proposed amendments to the Bylaws must be submitted in writing to the Executive Board and must be endorsed by at least five (5) Members in Good Standing, or be approved by a majority (>50%) vote of the Executive Board, provided that the amendment does not relate to the number of Directors, the composition of the Executive Board, the term of office of Directors or the method or way in which Directors are elected.
- B. Any proposal received or initiated by the Executive Board shall be tabled until all Directors have received it prior to recall of the proposal for voting. Upon recall of the proposal a two-thirds affirmative vote of the Directors is required for acceptance of the amendment.

11.2 Governing Law.

These Bylaws shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the State of Missouri.

- A. To the extent any provision of the Bylaws is prohibited or ineffective under the Act, the Bylaws shall be considered amended to the smallest degree possible in order to make the Bylaws effective under the Act.
- B. In the event the Act is subsequently amended or interpreted in such a way to make any provision of the Bylaws that was formerly invalid valid, such provision shall be considered to be valid from the effective date of such interpretation or amendment.

11.3 Severability.

All provisions of these Bylaws shall be severable. Any provision that, for any reason, is determined to be invalid shall not affect the validity of any other provision of these Bylaws.

11.4 Table of Contents; Titles of Articles and Sections.

The Table of Contents and titles of Articles and Sections have been inserted herein for administrative convenience only, and do not constitute matter to be construed in interpreting these Bylaws.
